So enjoyed reading HIM, the Coastal Killer. Kathleen Fracaro keeps you enthralled throughout the book. The characters seem so real. A must read. Now, I am anxiously waiting for the next book in the Quinn Donnelly Series!

Ok. First let me say that this was a good suspenseful story. That said, I don't know if it was because it was in eBook format, but I found a ton of grammatical errors and inconsistencies that were distracting. For example, there was a character named Cleve, but half the time they referred to him as Clive. Whoever did the editing really did a poor job. I did like the story, however.

Ken Fracaro says

This book was inspired by the serial killings that took place from 1993 through 2003 in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Once you start reading this book it's hard to put down because it captures you in the moment of the drama and action that is unfolding. The flow of the book is fast and interesting. I highly recommend it as an engrossing murder mystery that you are sure to enjoy.

I received my copy of this book through Goodreads first reads giveaways.

It took me a bit I ended up getting really enthralled in the story and characters. It was never dull and never over the top, a fast enjoyable flowing story to the end. I also like all the short chapters, good for someone like me who sometimes only gets 15 minutes at a time to squeeze in some reading.

I wanted it to get more involved in Quinn & Cal, and also Quinn's abilities. So I'm definitely putting the next Quinn Donnelly book on my list!
