Ancient Musings Skhye Moncrief

Disgusted with her lack of purpose, Calliope is learning all too well the warning in be careful what you wish for. She challenged Zeus and landed in Hades. Now she needs to reach Gaia's pool to save herself from the Land of the Dead's darkness. Little did she expect a psyche to reveal the path to tomorrow. The soul of archaeologist, Jake Genoese, is bored to tears until he finds the beautiful Calliope, intriguing and bearing the token he needs to jumpstart his day-excursion on the afterlife's cruise to nowhere. One's light brightens the other's future as Olympians vie for power by toying with psyches in the Kingdom of Hades, for nothing more than the simple whims of ANCIENT MUSINGS.
