Jeff says

This is a job for Batgirl!

This is a one-shot book that coincided with the release of the greatest Batman movie ever, “Batman and Robin”.

Nipple suit Batman and Mr. Freeze... I get it.

Batgirl's fairly new at the superhero crime fighting business having previously dispatched Killer Moth.

Whither Killer Moth?

Batgirl likes to hang with the GCPD and take down perps on the sly – then it's enter The Joker.

And Batgirl gets to debate the merits of crime with the loony master of mayhem.

After a minor disagreement:

Despite the pseudo-porn-y/pseudo The Price is Right set-up, I'll give my favorite Goodreaders a single guess as to who bails out Batgirl.

He gets shot in the head (hence the look of Bat-rage) and packed off to the Leslie Thompkins Clinic and Batgirl gets to ponder on going up against Mr. Freeze.

Bottom line: As a one-and-done, it's a decent read and it has no plot tie-ins to the epic cinematic genius of Joel Schumacher.

Three groovy Bat stars.

And Power to the People!!

Ola says

Good story, but batgirl was a bit too unprofessional for my taste.

Josh Angel says

A great story that fits perfectly in the Batgirl Year One time frame. Entertaining, well written story, EXCELLENT art, just not long enough. Would have liked to see this fleshed out into a longer arc. It's over before it gets started.

Eva Viktória "Evel" says

Well, story was kinda boring and nothing really happened (and I guess I just don't get the Batgirl, eh), but oooh myyy goooood, the artwork was beautiful! :)

Oliver says

Not a bad story. Art was average. Despite making reference to the great Batgirl Year One on several occasions, it also contradicts it, which just feels kind of sloppy. Also, Babs comes off as pretty dumb, which is not something that feels right.

michelle eskin says

Good

I liked it but I wish it was longer, because it is very short and rushed, but it was exciting

Dony Grayman says

Edición mexicana. Colección Batman Presenta.

Angela says

A batgirl story that is early on in her career. Some nice character touches, especially her first meeting with the Joker. Not much else happens but it is a fun, inconsequential read.

James says

The art is good, the story is enjoyable, but very brief.

Denise Malta says

I can't even rate it. It was so short. The art was great and the story was a quick and easy read with absolutely no depth to it.

Justin says

Eh. The best part was reading this with my daughter. The art work is pretty good, but the story is lacking depth. Not the best Batgirl stuff. Pass this one by.

"Cuando la leí en su momento me pareció zafable, cuando la relea seguro haga una reseña acorde" dice mi hermano burlonamente, emulando mi voz como un idiota. Pero tiene bastante razón, así que hasta nuevo aviso, esta es la review.
