Tenía intención de reclamar lo que era suyo...

No se habían vuelto a rozar desde aquella noche de hacía quince años, pero Donna Barreto aún reconocía el deseo en los ojos de Jake Lonergan. El deseo y la culpa. Tenía remordimientos por haber tratado de hacerla suya mientras ella era la novia de su primo. Aquél había sido su secreto... hasta que ella se había marchado de la ciudad con un secreto aún mayor. Ahora Jake pretendía darle al hijo de Donna el apellido que merecía por derecho, el honor le obligaba a hacerlo. Pero era la pasión la que lo impulsaba a luchar por la mujer con la que sólo había estado una vez...

15 years ago, Donna Barrett stopped herself from taking the final step with Jake Lonergan. Not because she didn't want too, but because she was dating his cousin. But tragedy struck the four close cousins when Mac Lonergan drowned that summer, never getting to know his son.

Now, she's back home with her mother and 15 year old son, Eric. Also back in town is bad boy, motorcycle racer, Jake Lonergan.

He's never gotten over that night that could have been. Now, when the Lonergan family learns about Mac's son, the cousins are excited to get to know him.

Although she knows her son needs men in her life, Donna is cautious about her son hanging out with the Lonergan's. Especially Jack.

Jack who is constantly pursuing Donna and trying to win her over for the final time.

Both Jack and Donna grow for the better and accept the past and begin a life together.

DNF at 31%

Donna the b*tch, Jake the a-hole and little Eric, oh yeah and Mac, the dead guy.

Did not like the MCs at all. Why did she keep Eric from the rest of his family and why is she still? Well, no good reason apparently. Both MCs strike me as self pitying cowards.

I found myself not caring how it ends and reading other stuff instead, so what's the point of continuing?...

Even though they aren't marked down or reviewed yet, I've read all of this series and found it bittersweet.

The three mens lives move on but Mac will forever be gone. I thought this book was good but I couldn't help but feel the loss that the series was over.

Fiona Marsden says

This one is a bit more angsty than the others in the series. Jack hasn't been back for years. Not only is he grieving his cousins death but he feels guilty. Because he wanted his cousins girlfriend and on the night before the accident, he kissed her.

Donna ran away from Jack because she liked him too much. She ran straight to her boyfriend filled with guilt. Now, she has a teenage son and he's a Lonergan through and through.

Jack is determined Mac's son will be a part of the family. And that means Donna too. The same attraction is still there but the guilt and the grief still stand between them.

This was a satisfying end to the series.

It just wasn't my type of story. That's why I gave it a low rating.
