Collects Marvel Team-Up (1972) #1-11.

How better to celebrate a Marvel Masterworks milestone 150th volume than with all Marvel's most-famous characters all piled into one amazing title-Marvel Team-Up! In the world of interconnected heroes that Marvel Comics pioneered, Team-Up made that formula a franchise and gave fans a much-desired double-monthly Spidey fix. Created by the same top-flight talents that brought you Amazing Spider-Man-Roy Thomas, Gil Kane, Gerry Conway, Ross Andru and Jim Mooney-MTU brings Spidey together with the Human Torch, the X-Men, the Vision, the Thing, Thor, the Cat, Iron Man and the Inhumans. That's enough super hero for anybody's diet! And with villains like Kang the Conqueror, Sandman and Morbius for dessert, Team-Up's will have you full-up with classic comic book adventure!

Robert Hultman says

Spider-man and Friends

This first dozen issues are cool and a good way to keep reading Spiderman-man with a bit of a Marvel Universe kick too. Some cool villains and stories that are different enough from the main Spider-Man storylines to stay interesting.

Douglas Hancock says

I was always a huge fan of Marvel Team-Up and I've really been enjoying revisiting these stories in the Masterworks editions.
