Once again, I can't praise the authors and the committed moderators over at the M/M Romance group enough for effort and hard work they put into the Hot Summer Days event. This anthology is fabulous, and there's definitely something for everyone here. Proud to have this on my Kindle ;)

*Review of Cleon Lee Short story – BENEATH YOUR WINGS (Angel/Demon)*

Zeziel and Thieliel are such heartbreaking couple!

Zeziel is a cast out angel... banned from heaven, forever.

aka he is a demon

Thieliel is his other half, an angel still in paradise. Zeziel is forbidden to see, hear or talk to him...

But something is impossible to control... something that is so important, and is the reason of Zeqiel existence... that something is called love

Can an angel and a demon be together?

Read this free short story to discover it... with a box of Kleenex by our side... their love is really heartbreaking!

Many of my personal favorite stories are in this particular volume: Taylor Donovan's Heatstroke, Marguerite Labbe's Tears From the Sea, Jason Huffman-Black's I am the Highway (and that's not just because it was written from my photo & letter). NJ Nielson, SJD Peterson, Amy Lane, and more. And my own story, Chasing the Prick, is in this volume also. It's a great mix of work from great authors!

Ana says

Before this book, I hadn't gone too much into the M/M area. I might have read some stories here and there, and didn't bother to put them up on Goodreads, for they were just excerpts. Some of them were really badly written and I was skeptical about reading even more of this genre.

Though I gave it 3 stars, that doesn't mean I found it bad. It's just that 3 stars is the overall rating, cumulated from all the stories inside. Different authors were given a picture and they had to come up with a story as to how that picture might have happened, what was behind the character's dreamy eyes, or why did he seem to be in pain, or other as such. Some wrote 4,000 words stories, some went to 30,000. It was their decision to make.

I will admit that some of the stories I didn't like at all. Being no quite into the subject from the beginning, I was a very harsh judge, and some didn't seem to be enough. Others I really really liked, and I kept some author names to follow them on the Internet and see what they're up to.

Why I read this book in the first place? Partly because I wanted to broaden my limits. I wanted to open up my mind, and see if I like this kind of writing or not. After finishing, I can't say I'll never read M/M again, because it is entertaining, and as in any genre, you can always find something really well written.

Another reason for which I went on GR and typed gay stories was that I saw this video on the Internet. It's called "What if Heterophobia were real?". It's based on true stories, but with a twist. It presents this world were instead of gays being forced to hide themselves and blamed by society, this happened to heterosexuals. It's just a 20 minute video, and I really recommend people to go search for it and watch it. It's pretty sad, and as it impressed me, it may touch others also.

I think I'll read the first and next volume also. I just started with this one because this I found in the beginning.

Allie Ritch says

This volume had several good stories. The standouts for me:

"Be My Boy" by Casey Cox was a nice twist on a May-Dec. romance.

"Delivery with a Smile" by Megan Derr was a really fun read.

"Hidden Needs" by Havan Fellows was a hot BDSM story.

"Tears of the Sea" by Marguerite Labbe, which I had already read in another volume, was a unique paranormal romance.

"Beneath Your Wings" by Cleon Lee was a nice angel romance.

"Finding Home" by Jordan Sophia Lombard was an entertaining SFR.

Now for Volume 2 of the compiled stories from the Hot Summer Days event. Days 10 through 18.

As a co-moderator for the M/M Romance Group that pulled this event off with the help of our incredibly generous authors and members I have nothing but praise for all the efforts in this anthology.

I think anyone with a positive interest in the m/m genre would be hard pressed to find anything missing from this volume or the first volume, however, if you do, hang on. There are still two more volumes coming.

Over 252,000 words and all free. Enjoy!

Rachel Emily says

This specific anthology has my favorite story from the entire event - Heatstroke. What an amazing story.

Also, a few of my other favorites are Like the Taste of Summer and The Importance of Being Denny. But honestly, there is not a bad story in the entire anthology...some of the best stories I have read in a very long time, and the best part? It's all free! Highly recommend this entire anthology and the first volume too!

Exina says

The stories in this anthology are the product of the Hot Summer Days promotion. The M/M Romance group invited members to choose a photo and pen a letter asking for a short M/M romance story inspired by the image; authors from the group were encouraged to select a letter and write an original tale.

Sadly, only one 5-star story for me in this anthology:

Be My Boy

4-star stories:

Hidden Needs

Keep Me

Like the Taste of Summer

The rest:

Appearing Knightly

Cody and the Hermit

Hidden Amongst Stars

Delivery with a Smile

I Am the Highway

Surf's Up

Super Sock Man

My Bloody Valentine

Between Friends

Hannah says

My favorite stories in this volume were...

"Be My Boy" by Casey Cox - an intriguing and surprisingly romantic story about a D/s slave relationship.

"Like the Taste of Summer" by Kaje Harper - further evidence that Ms. Harper is in her element when writing in the short form. This is a really sweet story about first love.

"Tears of the Sea" by Marguerite Labbe - a haunting paranormal story featuring some of my favorite mythological creatures.

"Super Sock Man" by Amy Lee - totally adorable. I haven't read any of Amy Lee's full-length novels yet; I understand they are usually angst-ridden. This story was just sweet and sexy fun.
