Groot #1 Jeff Loveness , Brian Kesinger (Illustrator) , Declan Shalvey (Illustrator) , Jordie Bellaire (Illustrator)

For the first time ever, the most famous talking-tree-thing in the Marvel Universe is starring in his own series! You might recognize him from Guardians of the Galaxy, the biggest movie of 2014. When Rocket and Groot are on an intergalactic road-trip and calamity strikes, the two get separated, and for the first time in years, Groot's on his own! Whatever may be coming Groot's way, one thing's for sure- it's going to be a Groot adventure!

Jennifer says

I think that they did quite a good job in this one. The art is appealing, but more importantly, very well-done in terms of expressions and body language for both Groot and Rocket without putting it ridiculously over the top. If the creators can keep this up, I'll keep coming back for more, because it'll be one of those series in my "funny comics that make me smile" category. This one reminds me, in a good way, and probably not coincidentally considering that the artist is a Disney animator, of fun TV cartoon-watching.

Admittedly, I did have to expend some effort since the only thing that Groot says is, "I am Groot," so I'd often go back after reading Rocket's dialog or examining the panels and imagine Groot's tone and pitch.

Raeleen Lemay says

I loved the art style in this, but Groot on paper isn't nearly as awesome as Groot onscreen.

Evan says

Every thing about this book is delightful from the art to the story i can't wait for more adventures

Thomas says

Rocket und Groot - das beste und witzigste Duo aktuell im Marvel Universum.

ezra's mischief says

Uncontrollable laughs all around.

It doesn't get better than Rocket talking and Groot repeating "I am Groot".

SPOILERS

space sharks.

SPACE. SHARKS.

Lexxi Kitty says

Groot and Raccoon go on a roadtrip. One disaster follows another as the two have their "car" break down, get attacked by space sharks, and get attacked by bounty hunters.

Interesting beginning. I might have been slightly too old to read this comic. Or it's geared more for younger readers, or . . . something. Still, I'll probably pick up the second issue.

Azuma-chan says

I saw the Guardians of the Galaxy first time in 2015 and because the story wasn't that clear for me, I didn't like the movie much. But then this year, I saw the trailer for the second movie with baby Groot in it and I remembered all the characters and decided to give the first vol. one more chance. And boy! Oh boy! I fell in love with it immediately after getting what's going on. I loved everything and everyone in it, specially Rocket and Groot. I adore their friendship. When I finished watching both of them, I wanted to know/read more about these two.

Groot is awesome. He is so gentle and sweet. I love plants, so his tree-like appearance really fascinates me. I also find him interesting in the way he evolves. He didn't just not die, but also grows in reverse. He goes from being adult to a baby with childish behavior. His style in this comic is fantastic. I can't say the same for Rocket cause for some reason he seems a bit old but the story is entertaining which I'm enjoying a lot.

Tamara says

My non-spoilery review for the whole vol.1 is here

I'M DYING!!! :D :D

Cant pick the best moment. All the great banter between Groot and Rocket Raccoon or that funny superman reference? ^^

Ashley Brooks says

This was adorable.
More please.

---

Emily says

I cannot get enough of the interaction between Rocket and Groot. They just make me smile So. Damn. Much.

Pragyan Pradhan says

This book made me smile, for its quirks and humor and references. It's a road trip and it's going to be grooooooooooot.

Cody says

I am Impressed. (See what I did there?)

---

Crini says

Groot is so adorable! This might become my new favorite :D

---

Kate says

This is my second comics.I liked it.
