I was born in New York and relocated to South Carolina. I so enjoyed Faith Logan's one in a life time chance to meet Irvin Freeman. Then to fall in love after a one in a chance weekend. Irvin took Faith to spots in Manhattan I never knew existed. The cast of characters from Faith's family and friends to Irvin's publicist and friends was a real hoot. I read this book in less than 8 hours I could not put it down. Riveting, sexual, intense, exciting and laughable. Bravo....

Karen says

I thoroughly enjoyed reading Irvin and Faith's love story. It was suppose to be a weekend for Faith to spend with her favorite actor at his movie premiere and scheduled activities after winning the contest where a fan was selected out of thousands for making a contribution to Irvin's foundation in raising money for Alcoholics Awareness. It was fun indeed...so much so that more than fun resulted from their weekend spent together! Although it was my first time reading Ms. Williams' work, I truly enjoyed it and look forward to reading more romance books from this author. Awesome read!

Review:

This is an enjoyable story of a hardworking girl who always does the right thing finally finding love. Faith was a nurse at the top of her field working as an administrator in a major Houston, Texas Hospital. Dating a rising politician. It all ended when Faith's mom had a stroke and Faith went back home to her small town to care for her parents. Two years later she is still back home trying to keep her parents home together after her twin sister stole their life savings to support her drug habit. Her boyfriend moved on to someone new, and Faith is working as a floor nurse at a small hospital. When she receives a phone call that she has won a contest that she forgot she entered, Faith's life makes a change for the good.

Irvin Freeman is one of the hottest actors out there. He is about to spend the weekend with a girl that won a contest to be with him and an all expense tour of New York City. The attraction is immediate as soon as they meet. Faith is everything that he desires in life, but Faith is unsure why this mega star would be attracted to her.

A New York Kind of Love is a fast paced, light read of love and romance. It is the fantasy of almost every girl to meet and fall in love with a handsome rich actor.

A New York Kind of Love is my first book from this author and explores a fantasy that would not be amiss in most romance readers lives. To be swept off your feet by a Hollywood leading man Well in this case the heroine isn't exactly please about the situation. She rather be back home in South Carolina as unknown hardworking girl who is trying to do the best for her family despite the challenges that have been thrown her way thanks to life. However her life is about to change and this were the basis for the book is formed when Faith life is turned upside down thanks to a ordinary contest with an extra ordinary prize.

Spending weekend with Irvin Freeman, a hot Hollywood actor and experience New York at its finest. Irvin Freeman, a man that she couldn't care less knowing personally despite entering the contest to win a date with him. She knows his reputation and she rather focus on her family. But when she gets a shove in the right direction from her best friend and soon finds her in New York in a whole different world and finds herself falling with Irvin despite her mind telling otherwise.

Though Irvin Freeman is actor that woman clamour after and in demand. The man has morals and whilst he may portray to the media a certain image. He is a genuine, charismatic man who wants more then being just a actor but he never thought he would find a woman like Faith when he is at a crossroad like now.

It looks like both of them are goners but is she risking her heart for a love that is permanent or is going to be a New York kind of love because Irvin isn't ready.

It was an enjoyable story however I had some issues.

It felt short on a couple levels. I wanted to the backgrounds of the hero to exploded more. I wanted to be shown rather then told as there was a lot of talk. It leads me to the second issue as it was the same problem with some of the minor plot points. like how some arcs resolved themselves. It was almost accepted like it had to be that way rather taking the time to explore and reach their own conclusions.

After reading Ms. Williams Henderson Family series, she has become one of my go to authors. I preordered this book and I'm so glad I did. Faith and Irvin outwardly appear to be from two totally different worlds, when in reality they are very similar. As Irvin states, fate brought them together and he believes in fate. The supporting characters of Kitty, Marie and Faiths parents were also fantastic.

CONCEPT

The concept of this story woman falls for a Hollywood star after winning a weekend date.

STORY

Winning an all-expenses-paid weekend in New York with Hollywood's sexiest heartthrob makes Faith Logan the envy of women everywhere. But paparazzi and crazed admirers are making her doubt their potential as a couple. Will the pressures of fame cause their love to fade before he can convince her they've found their own real-life happy ending?

CHARACTERS

The author does a good job displaying Irvin's need to label Faith as another groupie but saw how Faith did not have that type of interest in Irvin. Faith was a new breath of fresh air to Irvin and he wanted to know her better. He was determined to make their relationship work. Faith's character was one that valued family and believed in taking care of herself. She did not have time for a relationship and definitely not one with a movie star. The chemistry between these two was apparent and will have readers rooting for them to make it.

DIALOGUE

The dialogue fell in line with the theme and kept the story flowing.

STRUCTURE

The story was crafted and structure flowed very well. The story will hold the reader's interest as to the outcome of Irvin and Faith's journey.

OVERALL

A New York Kind of Love was Synithia William's first Kimani romance and it was an enjoyable read. I have read other works by this author and found them to be well crafted. Readers should not sleep on this author. She is a good storyteller. Love this book.

Sweet and spicy! Faith has the world on her shoulders! She left a supervisory, well-paying job to move back home to South Carolina, to take care of her injured and ailing parents after her drug-addicted twin sister, stole all of their life savings. Now she's a nurse at the bottom of the seniority list and she's just tired of everything! Then fate steps in. Faith wins a contest consisting of a weekend in New York with famous movie star, Irvin Freeman. If she thought her life was out of control before, just add in crazy fans, overbearing assistants, and a thorough invasion of privacy! Nicely Done!

New York Love

This was a sweet romance between Faith and Irvin. Irvin is a rich famous actor, and Faith is a small town country nurse who's life had changed when she had to move home to care for her parents. Faith wins a contest that flies her to Irvin's home in New York and they end falling hard for each other.

What are the odds that the paths of a famous movie star and a small town nurse will cross? Slim to none at best. However, for Faith Logan, her odds increased exponentially when she won the grand prize in a celebrity contest. Her prize, spend a weekend in New York City with Irvin Freeman. A majority of women would have been ecstatic about such an opportunity. However, Faith was not one of them. She had to be forced to accept the prize.

Faith is a nurse. She is the sole caregiver for her parents. She left a lucrative job in Houston, so she could return home to take care of her ailing parents. She did not feel comfortable with leaving them to go have fun in New York, hence her lack of enthusiasm. Furthermore, she believed that the down to earth persona, displayed by Irvin during his many interviews were fake. After all, he is an actor.

Irvin Freeman is a man who believes in fate. He is the hottest commodity in the movie industry. He came from the UK hoping to make a better life for himself. He was introduced to the acting world, and since then there has been no turning back. The celebrity contest was established by him so as to raise funds to support to help in the fight against alcohol addiction. This was a cause that meant a lot to him as such he was willing to spend the weekend with Faith although he believed she was interested in seducing him.

The moment these two laid eyes on each other sparks were ignited. However, pre-conceived notions would prove to be a deterrent. The more time they spent together, the more they realised that their assumptions about each other were wrong.

The story demonstrates that love can be found in the most unlikely place. I enjoyed reading about the characters. They both had their demons, dealing with. Their fears, doubts, and insecurities made them real for me. The doubts that Faith had as it relates to having a relationship with Irvin was understandable. The media were always hounding him and she valued her privacy. Then there was the distance and the times they were forced to spend apart.

The story was predictable, and it was not unique. However, this did not prevent me from enjoying it. This was an instant love connection as everything took place within that one weekend. However, I liked how the author builds on their relationship. They experienced the highs and the lows that relationships go through. They had to fight to keep their connection alive.

The ending was sweet. It warmed my heart just to read it. If you enjoy romance featuring hot movie stars, then you will love this book. The characters are real, the story engaging and the romance was sweet.

Have you ever dreamed of winning a weekend with the hottest actor alive? Well Faith didn't think she would win, she gave a donation to a worthy charity that was having a drawing and the winner would have a weekend with the hottest actor at his movie premier and also be with him as he handed over the check to the charity. I would love to win something like this.

Well when Faith receive the call that she won, she thought it was a joke, she didn't even remember entering the contest. Well then Faith wasn't even sure she wanted to go, she just has way too many responsibilities to just take off for a weekend getaway to New York City. But her friends and family talked her into going and she went.

Irvin Freeman the hot actor that Faith won the weekend with was also just wanting to get this over with. He was glad that they had raised money for his charity about alcohol awareness but wasn't really in the mood to spend the weekend with a fan.

A New York Kind Of Love by Synithia Williams is a fantastic book, This is the first story I have read by Synithia Williams and really love her writing style. I love this story about fate and love. As I was reading this story my emotions are all over the place, I totally wish I could relate to Faith, I mean I can relate except I have never won a weekend with a hot actor. But I felt her emotions from the beginning. The author did a great job of developing the characters and they were easy to fall in love with and that made this story even better. This story was one that of course hooked me from the start. I didn't want the story to end. The ending was perfect.

I just loved it and love reading these types of stories. I guess because that would be my fantasy to win a weekend with a famous hot actor.

I want to thank Tasty Book Tours for the ARC
