Off Grid Backwoods

If the world you know today were gone tomorrow, would you survive?

Johnny & Rae Lynn Tapper find safety in solitude, hidden deep within the shelter of the Rocky Mountains. Terrorists have taken away the country they once knew and they survive, secluded and alone, by living off the land. They live wild new lives in a wild new world, living among the wild animals of the vast Colorado wilderness. There are no phones. There is no power. There are few people. They are completely 'Off Grid'.

Excerpt:

"The screeching and squawking had me searching around the birds at four in the morning. I was equipped with a flashlight, a shotgun, my boxers and boots. Had I known I would encounter the wolves, I would have gotten dressed and come better armed."

First off, let me thank you for taking the time to look into Off Grid. I am the author and very thankful for your interest. I would rate Off Grid very highly myself, although I will leave it to you to decide. I am very confident that you will enjoy this book. The initial reviews and feedback that I have received have been very good and I look forward to hearing your thoughts as well.

If the world you know today were gone tomorrow, would you survive?

This story goes deep into the heart of that question as Johnny and Rae Lynn Tapper find themselves in a wild and harsh new world. They face severe injuries, brutal winters, a deadly encounters with wild animals, and many other struggles as they fight to survive in the vast wilderness of the Colorado Rockies.

I am currently working on a follow up story that should be available very soon. Thank you, ~Backwoods~

UPDATE: The follow up story, Stronghold, is now available. Thank you.

While I was reading this story I could hear the authors voice telling me almost as if I was reading his diary about his life, the story kept me intrigued , I could see how our world could be turned upside down like this and at the same time , living off the grid if its just you and your family surviving out in the wilderness , I wouldn't have the knowledge to be able to last very long , I have become somewhat crippled by society ready in a minute meals and open 24/7 stores, the characters I feel like I would love to know them and be with them if this ever happened great story, and the sneak peek to the stronghold has me definitely wanting to read more :)
