Duck Hunter Shoots Angel - Acting Edition Mitch Albom

THE STORY: DUCK HUNTER SHOOTS ANGEL is the uproarious story of two bumbling Alabama brothers who have never shot a duck but think they shot an angel. As they lament their fates in a murky swamp, they are chased by a cynical tabloid journalist and his reluctant photographer, who don't believe any of it until feathers, wings and a tiara are discovered along the way. The play hysterically interweaves a love story, sibling rivalry, tawdry media, race relations and cultural stereotypes as the chase to find the angel builds to a crescendo in the swamp. Ultimately a sweet allegory about redemption, DUCK HUNTER SHOOTS ANGEL has been hailed by audiences as a rare comedy with a surprisingly heartfelt lesson.

Rose Portell says

This was very similar to the other play I read by Mitch Albom recently. It had an unexpected twist at the end that made me think, "wait, what??" Overall, it was good; a quick read that follows the typical theme that Albom usually writes about.

I've always liked Mitch Albom, and this play doesn't disappoint. Hilarious and thought-provoking. I can't wait to see it staged!
