Her Outback Christmas (A Romantic Adventure) Rose Celeste

New Yorker, Tess Finlay, craves escape from the city for Christmas. The Australian outback seems like the perfect choice. Or not. She can cope with super-sized spiders and kamikaze kangaroos. The real danger is enigmatic chopper pilot, Matt. He's rude and irritating, but there's vulnerability under the tough exterior and hot body. A fatal combination she vows to steer clear of. Matt Carter doesn't do commitment, for very good reason. Which makes Tess a problem. Sparky wit wrapped in a delectable body is hard to resist, but he knows how to keep his distance.

It should be easy to avoid each other for a couple of weeks. What could possibly go wrong?

A light holiday romance, give or take a bit of mortal danger.
