From Reader Review Joshua's Muse for online ebook

Elisa Rolle says

In a previous book always by Fae Sutherland for Ellora's Cave, her main character was a boy whom second name could have been "Pollyanna", he was so naive and with a pink glasses perspective of the world that people avoided to wound him to not seeing him cry. One of the character of this story, Alex, is innocent and trusting like that one, but more than a Pollyanna story, this is a naughty version of Little Red Riding Hood and the Big Bad Wolf.

When Alex meets Joshua, he knows that the other boy, even if only 21 years old against his 18, is way more experienced, he also wonders, the first time he finds himself in his bed, how many other innocent boy has lost their virginity in that bed. Yes, since Alex, barely 18 years old and for the first time far from home (even if "far" are only 40 miles) is meeting his fate as soon as he steps out of the safe shelter of his home; he is an easy prey for hungry wolves, and the first to spot him is Joshua. Joshua is an art student who "catches" Alex with the excuse of him being his muse and his absolute need to paint him... strange that, when Alex agrees to come into his lair, all thoughts about paintings disappear and instead Joshua begins the "hard" task to debauch the virgin... Never once in all the book Alex really models for Joshua ;-) Oh, well, it's pretty clear that it's not a paint that Joshua wants from Alex.

But now don't think that Joshua is a bad guy who passes from virgin to virgin (also since it's not so easy to find one, and when you manage, it's a good idea to not let him escape...): Joshua is really gentle with Alex, and their only troubles are those little silly thing that always happen between young lovers: why hasn't he called me? should I go to look for him? Almost all the troubles arrive from Alex that is still very young, not out with his family, and a bit self-conscious with his body. Alex is not a "beautiful" man, but above all he is still not a man: he is a boy and he has still all the insecurities of that age. There is maybe a bit of yaoi here (and the author even make a note on it), with Alex playing the blushing uke, unaware of his attributes (that most of all are the fact that he is virgin), and Joshua in the role of the gentle seme... yes, yes, Alex blushes, whimpers, pleases, but well he is cute and tender like a puppy, so I can't not feel a "maternal" instinct towards him... Ahah "maternal"? well, yes, Alex is not exactly the hero that arouses my sexual fantasies, but considers that Joshua, even if a bit more experienced, it's only 21 years old, so not much more adult than Alex.

There a little angst, with Alex's incapability to come clear with his family, but truth be told, it's soon resolved and the author even let us have a glimpse on Alex and Joshua's life in the future... another proof that Joshua is not interested in Alex only as his "muse".

[ he promised to come out to them, yes, but because Joshua really pushed and then gave him an ultimatum. I didn't really like that, but it could be because the MC's are 18 and 21. (hide spoiler)]

Alexandro (Alex) Manetas has lived a pretty sheltered life up until now. At 18, Alex has pretty much always done what is expected of him. Now attending College, and being out from under his parents wing, he is hoping to experience new things, and has a positive outlook for his future. He has high hopes of becoming an actor.

Alex decides to meet the Drama Professor. As he is looking for him, he becomes lost on the huge campus. When he spots the building he thinks he is looking for, he peaks into one of the windows, and sees a very beautiful man painting on a canvas. It is almost love at first sight for Alex. Time seems to stop for him. He doesn't know how long he stands and admires the captivating man looking through the window. When he snaps out of admiring the young man, fear takes a hold of him and he turns away because of self doubt, inexperience and being buried deep into the closet keeps him from making himself known. Alex determines that he has found the building he is looking for. When he enters it, he stumbles a wrong room were the artist he has been admiring is at.

Joshua Hadaway noticed the beautiful man watching him from outside. He is more than pleasantly surprised when the beautiful man comes into the room he is working in, looking for the drama dept. Josh immediately feels a connection with Alex. He senses Alex's nervousnesses about their instant attraction for one another, but he throws caution aside and sets out to get to know Alex and have him in his life.

It is love at first sight for Alex and Josh. The intensity of their feelings and desire for one another literally jumped off of the pages. Josh is a very determined young man. He sees the inner as well at the outer beauty in Alex. Josh has more experience and is more worldly than the more sheltered Josh, but his patience and love he has for Alex makes him a very desirable hero.

Alex is a very likeable hero, too. I thought he and Josh were very well written and well suited to be together. I found myself hoping that Alex would get past his fear of being outed to his friends and family and build a life with Joshua that both of them deserve.

***the epilogue was WONDERFUL in this book...I LOVED seeing how things turned for Alex and Josh***

There is some emotional angst in this book, but it isn't riddled with it. It is a easy, sweet, VERY sexy story that I lost time while reading it, and I read it in one sitting. The author Fae Sutherland is becoming a must buy author for me. I really like her heroes and her writing style. I am looking forward to reading more coming from her.

4.5 stars...but I will bump it up to 5.

i usually like sutherland's writing, but got so freaking caught up on this story being about 18 and 21 year old boys that i couldnt totally enjoy it... then the elder of the two essentially forcing the younger to come out to his family- after 4 months of knowing e/o? meh. wasnt totally sold on joshua- mainly b/c i couldnt tell you anything about him. and b/c he was a pushy bitch.
