-With a remarkable "concertina" design, this book showcases the 'grand tour' of Magnum Photographer Carl De Keyzer around North Korea, the most reclusive country in the world -After Cuba: La Lucha comes another unique book about a unique country "Timing is of the essence but a serious amount of good luck and a decent quality crystal ball are necessary" - Carl De Keyzer in The Guardian When it comes to foreign visitors or artists, North Korea must be the most restrictive country in the world. Nevertheless, Carl De Keyzer managed to cross the entire country in 42 days, divided into three journeys. In his latest book, Magnum photographer Carl De Keyzer points his lens at North Korea, officially the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, the last communist state in the world from an ideological, political and cultural perspective. De Keyzer is one of very few photographers who got almost-unlimited access to the country. He photographed more than 200 different locations, many of which had never been captured on camera before. The 250 photos that form his 'Grand Tour' - taken on marches, at the shooting range, in the subway and in family homes - are a testament to this country's uniqueness. Hallucinante beelden uit het meest restrictieve regime ter wereld, de fotografische neerslag van 4 reizen die De Keyzer de voorbije jaren maakte naar de Democratische Volksrepubliek Korea. De Keyzer mocht meer dan 200 verschillende locaties bezoeken, een uitzonderlijk privilege. Een selectie van 80 foto's is nog te zien tot 1 april 2018 in de Gentse Floraliënhall, achter het SMAK. Zeer de moeite, op een unieke locatie.
