Just when Abby thought middle school was safe...she stumbles on a mystery!

There's a thief on the loose in the sixth grade, and Abby and Hannah are determined to find out who's been taking their friends' most prized possessions. They assemble a list of suspects and piece clues together just like real detectives. But when Abby discovers the identity of the thief by accident, she wishes she'd never set out to crack the case. Now that she knows what she knows, Abby has to make a tough decision. Should she squeal on one friend or sit back while her others get hurt?

Grades: 3 to 6 Genre: Realistic Fiction

Things have started to go missing at Abby's school. First to go was Brianna's signed Tiffany Crystal CD, but slowly other items have started to disappear. Soon it becomes apparent that the thief is targeting students that went to Abby's old elementary school. That would mean the thief is someone that Abby knows. It is not until one of her items is stolen that Abby decides to try to solve this mystery. Only after Abby is hit by a stray softball and sent to the infirmary does she solve this case, but it is only by chance. Abby is a bright girl and each chapter begins with a journal entry by Abby. Through this kids can understand the inner workings of her mind. Part of the Amazing Days of Abby Hayes series.

Lauren Tong says

Great mystery

Lily says

I learned that you should not steal. Stealing is not the solution. You have to talk about it. Thats the solution.

Merlinda says

it is not good to steal because eventually you'll get caught.
