For two-hundred-years he's lived a solitary existence until a beautiful fae, with enormous power, disrupts his world...

Mastyr Vampire Malik has only one goal: to serve the realm he loves. But Willow has already become an obsession as he lusts for the powerful fae whose blood he craves. In turn, Willow has her own duties to attend to as the Protector of a large, vulnerable wraith colony. Without her shield, the innocent wraiths will be caught by the malevolent Society, a group intent on killing all wraiths and half-breeds. But her drive toward Malik, her need to be with him, to feed him, overrides her rational mind. Passion storms through her life, changing everything. But at what cost to herself, to Malik, to the entire Realm?

This installment fell short for me. It was too predictable; I knew what would happen, how it would happen, and when it would happen. The dilemma between the two was the same as the other couples; they didn't want to be in a committed relationship for whatever reason. So, of course, they fought it until their lives were in danger before realizing that they loved each other and had loved each other for a while, but they were too blinded by their own desires not to commit. At this point I wanted more from the series, but it is the same formula from one book to the next. Her Guardians Series is less predictable, though they too tended to fight the need to bond, but with that series the plot and villain and conflict carried the story making it ok for some predictability to take place. With this one Margetta wasn't much of a problem, so even she was a bit weak in this installment. I love Caris' writing and her storytelling ability, she can carry a story from beginning to end and have a well developed plot, this one just didn't do it for me. I hope the next one is better, for which I will read because I have read everything Caris has written, because generally speaking I love her work.

Enchanting and Hot!!!! I was given this book for a honest review. Another , funtastic sexy read! "Mastyr" Malik of Ashleaf realm has watched over the half-breed population for 200 years from The Society and "Mastyr" Axton, who is working with Margetta and the evil Invictus pairs. Willow is the protector of The Colony of pure wraiths, hidden below Ashleaf Realm on her property. She is "Mastyr" Malik's blood rose and both need to decide whether or not to bond to save Ashleaf from Margetta's invasions. Willow can connect with mother earth and when her and Malik get together with the vines encompase them, power surges through both of them. The vines also make their intimate times magical and intense. Come along for the ride as "Mastyr" Malik and Willow fight to protect all that is in Ashleaf and below. Get lost in the beautiful forest of their relam, the waterfalls ect. I hated to end this book because I know the next one(crossing fingers there is one) hasnn't been written. I love when you can picutre the scenes through the author's words. Thank you Caris Roane for your beautiful writings.

Another amazing installment to the Blood Rose Series! It's a book you don't want to put down till you're done and you never want it to end! Caris did an amazing job in writing this novel, I could easily get lost in her world! I always feel connected to her characters as if I've known them my entire life. The Nine Realms sound beautiful and a place that I want to belong in!

In this tale you will find Mastyr Vampire Malik and Fae part wraith, Willow, who are both putting their needs aside to protect the citizens of Ashleaf. They must learn that apart they can not accomplish their missions, but that together they can protect each other and their Realm of Ashleaf against the Ancient Fae Margetta and the Ex Mastyr of Asleaf, Axton.

I enjoyed reading the book and can't wait to see what happens in the next installment with Mastyr Vampire Zane!

Malik & Willow are a very serious, strong people and extremely dedicated to the jobs and goals they have set for themselves. Watching them develop as individuals and a couple was as agonizing as it was a joy. I really connected with these characters.

Absolutely love the "Nine Realms" world and characters that Caris Roane has created and it seems I just can never get enough. It colors my reviews because I want more. Selfish, that I am. Putting my selfish desires aside, Caris Roane never lets you down!

Merissa (Archaeolibrarian) says

Willow has been a silent Protector of a Wraith colony, hiding them from the sight of everyone - those that would help and those that harm. Malik is Mastyr of the Ashleaf Realm, trying to protect everyone, even with another Mastyr stirring up trouble. Marghetta once more makes her presence known, and Malik and Willow need to find the strength to protect the colony, as well as the heart of the Nine Realms itself.

An excellent addition to The Blood Rose series, Malik is another Mastyr that fights the thought of having a Blood Rose, due to some reason or other. This time though, Willow is also against it, as she feels that her Protector duties must come first.

This couple are hot and sweet, and take the whole thing remarkably well, which made for excellent reading. Well-written, and with no editing or grammatical errors that I could see, I would definitely recommend this book.

* I received this book from the author in return for a fair and honest review. *

So many important things about the realms and their inhabitants are revealed in this instalment. This was a lovely and straight to the point story, no messing around. I liked that a lot. I also loved that as Willow's home was described, I could imagine myself walking through it, it was so vivid.

I finished this one waayy too quickly, and now I play a waiting game for the next one sigh It absolutely cannot come soon enough. I love how these stories fire my imagination, they make me itch to pick up my pencils and brushes and bring the terrain to life on my canvas. One day.

Alternate universe/fantasy with sex. This is the 6th in the series.

I really enjoyed this one! CR gives the plot a little different twist. Of course, the main storyline is still the same. Mastyr vampire Malik finds his blood rose Willow & both resist the blood bond until the last minute. The next Mastyr vampire is introduced & a new villain as well. Nice light read.

Some interesting twists in this one that I really liked. Malik and Willow have been engaged in a chase for two years and after an attempt to break her shield and get to her people happens and she knows she cannot hold against more by herself, she brings in Malik and reveals her secret and they join forces to protect the wraiths. Willow finds out she is a blood rose and the dance ensues as they fight to stay separate to continue their respective duties even as the love grows. I really enjoyed this one and the new twists that change things again in this series.

This has been my favorite story of the entire series. All the books have been good, creative but follow a slight pattern. I really enjoyed the passion and energy of this book and felt that the author caught the writer's attention with the heat between the couple. Their interactions felt real, not fantasy-like, and kept you engaged in how everything unfolded. I look forward to the next installment.

AWESOME!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Mastyr Vampire Malick of Ash leaf realm has been alone for 200 years and doesn't want a woman distracting him. Not only does he fight the invictis but he also tries to keep safe all realm folk that have wraith blood from those who want them killed. Willow who is half Fae half wraith is the Protector of a wraith colony and can't afford to be distracted because the lives of many wraiths depend on her. I LOVED LOVED LOVED this book from page one. It was hands down my favorite of the series. I didn't want to put the book down at all. It was got and on stop from the get go and just awesome!!!!!!! And the scene with Malik and Davido had me laughing out loud :-) :-) :-) :-)

This series just keeps getting better and better. I couldn't tell you which one was my favorite.

The story line continues, big bad evil trying every way, and new ways to take over the nine realms. However in this one, we learn some new things that might mean something in the end with helping to win this continued battle each realm is facing.

Mastyr Vampire Malik and Willow are just cute together and very powerful. Its just so sad that it takes almost to the end of each story before each couple finally realizes that they want and need each other.

Once again, I am looking forward to the next book, can't wait to see what happens next.

I received Embrace the Wild by Caris Roane in exchange for an honest review. Mastyr Malik rules Ashleaf Realm. Willow is Protector of a wraith colony. Someone is after Willow's colony. She must protect them at all costs. Mastyr Malik wants Willow. Willow wants Mastyr Malik. But at what cost for both to be together. Especially when they realize Willow is a blood rose. Caris does an amazing job of telling this amazing story. It is wonderfully written with twists at every turn. Car is keeps you on the edge of your seat. Do Mastyr Malik and Willow give on to their desires? Or do they go their separate ways? You need to read Embrace the Wild to find out.

Christine Croke says

A great addition to this series. Malik is a Mastyr Vampire and Willow is a part Fae and party Wraith. Neither thinks they can have a relationship at this point in time. Too much to do.... Willow tries to protect a secret colony of Wraith families. Malik tries to protect his realm. But they can't keep away from each other and finally admit they need each other. Steamy hot scenes and a great story line will keep you hooked and unable to put the book down.

I was given this e-book by the publisher for the purpose of an honest review. My conclusions are my own. I was not compensated in any way.
