[Siren Ménage Everlasting: Erotic Ménage a Trois Romance, M/F/M, light consensual BDSM, spanking, HEA]

Mariana “Sparks” Sparketta is alone in the world. She’s struggling to put herself through college. Working as a courier delivering mail and packages to corporate businesses in Houston, she becomes hungry for a better life and to fulfill her dream of one day operating an art gallery.

She takes a job as an escort for a legit businesswoman. The men she assists are intriguing. How cool is it to get paid for talking about art, a subject she loves so deeply? She meets Jax and Jameson Spaulding, two very wealthy retired soldiers who have invented things and also provide protection for important clients. She never expects that taking this escort job could cost her not only her heart but her life.

Note: There is no sexual relationship or touching for titillation between or among siblings.

J says

The only thing I enjoyed in this book was that Mariana had knowledge of art. Otherwise, what horrible characters. There is a difference to being submissive in nature and being completely and utterly spineless - and Mariana is so spineless that she could go for being a worm.

Jessica Gomez says

Same formula as in her other books. Short (petite) staked young wounded girl. Who is in this case not a virgin. Gets that instant connection to two male hotties. Who are filthy rich, ex marines. Who have a dominant streak.

Brigitte says

Another must read. Best character development ever. You will finish the book and feel like you know the characters. Love bk1 characters are included. Truly a great series. You can not go wrong with any series from Dixie Lynn Dwyer.

3.5 Stars

I enjoyed parts of this book but I found other parts slow. I struggled a few times to keep my concentration on the story. I liked Marianna but I had mixed feelings on Jax and Jameson. At times I found their need for control annoying. A lot of the times they were over the top. I liked that they put Marianna first. They were protective of her and determined to keep her safe. When Jax and Jameson calmed a little, I liked them as Marianna's men. The danger in the book kept me entertained. One of the things I loved about this story was; Marianna's bond/friendship with Freda.

Excellent

I really enjoyed reading Jax, Jameson, and Sparks' story. I loved Sparks' character. She was so down to earth, yet pessimistic and untrusting. I like how she attempted to stand up to the dominant nature of the men, even if she still capitulated in the end. I am looking forward to reading the next one.

Tameka says

Mariana "Sparks" is working hard to pay off loans and put herself through school by taking on odd and end jobs when she stumbles into Jac and Jameson who immediately want to stake a claim on her. Due to her unfortunate love life falling apart it makes it harder to trust and fall again.

The way Jax and Jameson treat her shows her that want her forever. Mariana makes many new friends that show her its really all right.

Buffer says

Short and to the point. It serves as a great breather in between heavy reads. There is no angst, no drama. But then there is not very deep connection either, and the sex is ok but not great.

Allison says

I love this series

Cyn Mistress Kitty says

I liked this next story in the series however Jax was WAY over the top controlling and dominating. Wow, Mariana couldn't even look or talk to another man without him getting upset. He also fell for her when she was in a hoodie and sunglasses and all he could see was her lips and he wasn't even sure she was girl. Really? She must have some spectacular lips. lol

Emily says

Mariana "Sparks" Sparketta is used to relying solely on herself, no one else. When Jax Spaulding catches a glimpse of Mariana, looking like a kid skateboarder he is intrigued by the spitfire. Seeing her later on though as a waitress at an event, has him entranced and if looks his brother has Jameson.

Jameson is jagged, his time in the war has left him surly and wanting to be alone, until he meets Mariana. One act of kindness on her part, has Jameson wanting to sweep her away from her harsh life and protect her. Jax wants the same for Mariana and knows she is the one for the two of them, even if she is trying her hardest to deny it.

Excellent story, I did have a problem with the over the top bossiness with Jax, he is demanding. Both men are dominant characters and I would say out of all of Dixie Lynn Dwyers books this one is the most dom oriented, even if they don't use that title.

Merry Jelks-Emmanuel says

Marianna was a young woman trying to get by on the little that she had. All alone she is fierce, independent and takes things one day at a time. Jax and Jameson are brothers who also had a hard life and is looking for that one woman that will complete them. Jax got a brief look at a young woman who sparked an interest but was gone with the blink of an eye. Now they are at an art gala and she is there. Both brothers see her and the spark is ignited. Will it lead to a lasting love or will the Spaulding brothers enemies douse the spark before it gets a chance to be fueled?

Angelena says

I enjoy dominant men but these two were just too controlling. It was driving me absolutely mad.
