Susan Lee says

I just realised I haven't updated my review in Goodreads after reading it from Wattpad previously!

So anyway, Arthur has a very authentic and original idea which was entertaining in my books. Although there were 2 different scenes, he managed to weave it in and out smoothly. I was able to catch up with the flow even though I've stopped for some time midway.

Tony Parsons says

1917, Du Sze-hoi (36, Akecheta's BMF former Shanghai mobster,) & Akecheta Lung (33, tea importer, depression, suicidal ideation), were discussing Mr. Wright's order from the D & A Tea Limited distributor. Ipoh. Sirius Jeow (receptionist) The Lodge Hotel, informed Ms. Maya Keng (24, Kuala Lumpur, narrator), that the Ng Chan Villa, had gone up in flames & the husband/wife were presumed to be burned alive.

The bodies however were never found in the wreckage.

Du Sze-hoi (aka Char Ngoh Bor) & Akecheta (widower, aka Char Ngoh Leen) were headed for a night out at Eve's Garden.

Sirius was helping Maya with her Ng Chan Villa investigation.

What did Maya (aka Chin-ling) find out about Akecheta (aka Mr. Clean)?

9/19/1918, Devil Falls. Ah Lan & Cheah Tat-sing now help run the D & A Tea Limited distribution center.

What did Old Al (warlock) reveal to Maya about Eriksom?

& he also gave her some other startling information.

Chin-ling (witch) would now take Maya to her destination.

I loved that song Gangnam Style.

A very awesome book cover, great font & writing style. A very well written Chinese historical fiction mystery book. It was very easy for me to read/follow from start/finish & never a dull moment. There were no grammar/typo errors, nor any repetitive or out of line sequence sentences. Lots of exciting scenarios, with several twists/turns & a great set of unique characters to keep track of. This could also make another great Chinese fantasy movie, animated cartoon, or better yet a mini TV series. To be continued. Not my normal read but I really liked it so I will still rate it at 5 stars.
