Club El Diablo: Zachary & Monroe Holly S. Roberts

Zachery: Good and evil exist. I help fight evil or at least I did before an accident took me out of commission. Enter Monroe. He's a man like no one I've ever known. There's something about him that won't release me. I'm as mesmerized as his subs. When I manage to get Monroe out of my head, a strong, beautiful woman from my past haunts me.

Monroe: The world is not a gentle place. I kill for a living to keep the unaware safe. My art gives back the piece of my soul that dies with each death. Shibari grounds me and brings symmetry when chaos threatens. I have lived without asking anything from anyone. Then I met Zachery and the woman he loves. Now I will take what I want.

Angel: Darkness and caged bars filled my world until a man rescued me. I will never forget him. Then, his friend rescued me too. Now I'm caught between two men, I love, trying to let one go. The fact is, I want them both and my heart may be the biggest loser.

One night at Club El Diablo will change their lives but will it be the future they want?

Steamy and suspenseful.

This is a book about 3 people who need each other. Monroe is a gifted Shabari Dom. He teaches Zachary how to be a Dom. Angel is a scrappy Sub/Slave that needs them both. Their journey is what kept me glued to these pages. Have to get the next book!. From a True Fan.... Pam James.

Hot! Hot! Hot!

This is Club El Diablo: Zachary & Monroe series written by Holly S Roberts. This book tells the beginning story of the two men and how they became to care about each other. Zachary is trying to fight his inner demons and control his urges. Monroe sees this and decides to help Zach. Monroe is also deep in the BDSM world and soon has Zach contemplating his own life and sexual relationships. Enter Angel and things get super hot and steamy! It's a great story and will be continuing into more books! Yahoo! Three cheers to Holly S Roberts. Job well done!

They say that you are responsible for the life you save. They also say you can't save someone that doesn't want to be saved. Put 2 and 2 together, and you end up with this book, full of raw emotions that slap you hard against the cheek with each page, and steamy passion that fogs the crystals of your glasses. Which is even more extraordinary if you aren't wearing any.

Zack has rescued many people in his career, but he will always remember the strength that shone behind her blue eyes. Monroe has killed more people than he has saved, but encountering the strong beauty tied to the torture chair, so defiantly submissive, has captivated his mind and held his heart hostage ever since. And it was Angel, the one who went to hell and back, that brought the 2 men together. She loves them both. So does Monroe. Could Zack possibly let go of all his preconceptions and accept their unusual bond in all its caring warmth and sizzling glory?

Ok, first of all, this has to be said. WHAT A DOM! Oh I am absolutely thrilled to have come across Monroe and his Shibari techniques. Tie me up, Scotty and spank me hard. I love everything about this guy, his composure, his deadliness, his dominating essence that is so intricately exuberant without being excessive. The man has a style that could shame royalty and a glare that could level mountains. Not to mention a hand that could bruise you up almost as deliciously as it would soothe you! Me wants!

Ahem...

This has been an amazing read. One that had me jumping for the next book once it was finished. The story was nothing new, yet there wasn't a single repetitive element that I could find. The characters stood out and made it something new and exciting, and I could feel their conflict as well as their desires - even the unspoken ones they could not yet themselves admit. It was a very smooth read, without hiccups or continuity issues, despite its forward and backward jumps.

I feel almost sad that I started my journey in the El Diablo series from no5, but something tells me I can pick it up without ruining much of the excitement. And I have to say, I regret it not. In the slightest.

WOW! I cannot believe I've never read any of Holly Robertson's works before! She created amazing characters (each one lovable), and her writing and very vivid descriptions, were all fantastic in every sense that all made for a very addictive erotic read. A definite MUST read for all erotic genre fans out there :)

Angel is a woman that was trapped, kept prisoner for some time and used and abused by her captors. She's a woman that has been through so much in life, yet manages to keep on living. She sets a strong example of a woman's strength and determination at work, with a large side of play (wink wink). Having met both Zach and Monroe has worked wonders for her and I see her (even though she's been through so much negative) as a VERY lucky woman!

Monroe is a mysterious, handsome and intriguing man that will set any woman's panties a flame! He's one hard core dominant that throws off the vibes both in and out of the bedroom. He can be gentle when needed and a killer when absolutely necessary, and a vicious one at that. He also has a kind heart, amazing looks and a hearty sexual appetite.

Zach is a hero through and through. The man has a huge heart and great looks. Since the day he met Monroe, he's discovered more and more about himself both as a person and as a Dom. He has likes and dislikes in the bedroom, but has never allowed all of his likes to be known, to anyone. Befriending Monroe has helped him to realize his likes are not as abnormal as he feels they are and letting them be known to his intimate partners will only help to bring more to the experience and boy oh boy does it ever!

Two Doms for Angel is packed full of action, excitement, M/F/M scenes (that let off steam from the pages), very sexy BDSM elements and HOT heroes. All in all I'd say it is one gripping, emotional steamy and addictive read that leaves you wanting more in the very best of ways! I REALLY hope to see more of this trio. Really I do (hint hint).

Really, really love this book.

Cyn Mistress Kitty says

Wow, what a great story and very emotional. I just loved all the characters but especially Nate. I want to read more about them and how they work out their threesome.

Kent says

This was another excellent story by Holly S. Roberts. It was a little predictable, but still very entertaining.

Spynonu says

I really enjoyed this book. It is somewhat vague on why the bond was so instantaneous and strong for Monroe. Yes, I know- the force- but it was still extreme that he would do so much for someone he didn't really know. And there is always the trauma factor that made me wonder if Angel got the help she really needed before making the decisions she made.

THEN I reminded myself - this is fiction- enjoy the ride. And I certainly did.

Annika says

This was a very, very strange book for me to read and I'm not sure how to rate and review this. While it was quite sexy, most of the time I just felt frustrated.

I liked the two male leads, and yet they made me so angry. I hated Monroe's scheming and interference with Zach's life, I hated Zach for not walking (and staying) away, I even hated the freaking house keeper for snapping at Zach for not being agreeable to play Monroe's game right away and "making Angel cry".

The female lead, if you can even call her that, was more of a non-character. She was so dull and nondescript, I feel like the author could have cut her out completely and I wouldn't even have noticed, even though half of the book revolves around her. Actually, I would have preferred a story dealing solely with the two men.

Their interactions were so much more interesting than anything concerning Angel, and I found myself rooting for them to get together - but, of course it was their relationship that was shoved into the background and wasn't resolved at all in the end.

I feel anything but satisfied by how it all wrapped up.

The writing style was nice, though, and I really liked that the story was told from Zach's POV instead of alternating perspectives. I don't think I could've handled Angel's thoughts.

And even though this book didn't work for me, I can see myself giving another one by this author a try.

Ena May - Swoon Worthy Books/Enticing Journey Book Promotions says

If you are looking for a dark and sexy read this is a great book. If you are into reading about sexy dominance and BDSM look no further. Holly brings us a seductive read that gives us everything we want. The progression of the story takes place over several years and shows how the characters feelings and emotions grow towards each other. It's beautiful and raw; an emotional read that will have you wanting more.

Zach reminded me of a lost soul walking aimlessly through life not being true to the person he is deep down inside. An ex Marine whose life was saved by an unknown savior has turned toward law enforcement to occupy his life. Not having any type of serious relationship with anyone he seems lost and lonely. Knowing deep down his wants and desires are considered taboo he channels those and keeps them buried and locked deep down inside him. After meeting Monroe the man who will have Zach coming out of his darkness and showing him that his wants and desires are not as taboo as he thinks his life will never be the same. Zach's life continues to be lonely after having to leave the force due to an injury, and giving him nothing to occupy his days or lonely nights.

Monroe a master of binding in his own right is passionate about his creations. He has practiced Shibari for many years and BDSM is his life. He doesn't hide who he is and is very open about everything he wants and needs. When first meeting Zach so many years ago he knew there was something special about him that he needed, wanted. He followed Zach's life in the background and knew everything there was to know about him. After meeting several times throughout the years Monroe has called Zach needing his help. Sense he doesn't have a job he agrees to travel to Monroe's estate and help him with his art and anything else his friend may need, what he doesn't know is that his world is about to flip on its axis and everything he thought he knew is about the change.

The loops of the rope began unwrapping. “I will ask you to be completely nude when you are ready, but I will never betray your trust. Zach. This will not work if you cringe when my fingers graze your body. Get used to it.”

Monroe is a man with many needs. (In walks Angel) Angel who is submissive to the very core needs things that most people will never understand. Monroe is her master and she is his slave. Everything they do, she wants, having her own dark secret past has made her the person she is today. There is so much love flowing between Monroe and Angel that you can't help but smile. Although I don't quite understand why she wants to live that type of lifestyle – she is happy with Monroe and he treats her well. In the beginning of the story she is very timid but you watch her grow into this beautiful strong woman who is no longer haunted by the demons of her past. Monroe has brought Zach to his home not only because she wants him to model for his shows but he needs someone to stay with Angel while he is away on business and the only person he trusts is Zach.

“Yes, I am. I'll be answering questions and showing basic binding techniques afterwards. I would very much appreciate your help with Angel. She is very needy after a scene and I don't trust her with anyone else. Her eyes will be covered during the demonstration. You shouldn't remove the blindfold until she begins responding to you again. Also, I think this will put you more in my corner when it comes to staying here and caring for her.”

After meeting Angel for the first time it's like the he is seeing his past and future in one. The wind is knocked out him and he can't pull his eyes off hers. She is simply beautiful and he doesn't agree with a lot of her and Monroe's relationship especially since there is a spark that is growing inside him and him wanting to be with her in every way imaginable. He is dominating and he wants to dominate her in the bedroom and she is more than willing to give him everything he wants. It's her job to please him in any way he wants and she is a very eager student.

“You will not touch me without permission. You will not touch yourself. When is this bedroom, you will be completely naked. When in the house but out of this bedroom, you will go without underwear. I may or may not allow you understand when we leave the house. If you have any problems with the rules at this point, please say so because your delectable ass will carry my handprint if you don't object to these rules now and then you break them. Objections?”

Angel loves two men in different ways but their connections are strong. Monroe has loved Zach for a long time and knowing Zach's past he knows what he needed, he needed Angel. After spending time with Angel, Zach finds himself wanting to take Angel away and keep her to himself – he can't deny he has loved this woman for a long time. He has been secretly looking for his Angel to save him and now that he has found her he doesn't want to let her go. But she loves Monroe and there is no way Zach, Angel, and Monroe could work together, could they?

“My feelings go past sexual, Zach. They always have. You're the one who insists on putting love in a box. I rescued Angel for you, but then she rescued me. I have no plants to give her up.”

“Then I should leave.”

“And that's always been your answer. You run.”

“What exactly do you want from me?”

“That’s easy.”

Will Angel stay with her master who rescued her from her dark world and loved her in spite of her past and shames? Will Zach be able to share Angel with Monroe knowing that he has loved her for a long time and wants her for himself? Will Monroe be able to help Zach open up and finally admit to who he is and what he wants? Can the three work together and live life happy and will Monroe and Zach be Two Doms for Angel?

Holly thank you so much for letting me read and review this story – I loved it. It gave me an insight on a BDSM relationship and how sometimes love doesn’t always make sense and sometimes you have to look outside the box to discover who you really are. Love is beautiful in every form and if you find that you hold onto with everything inside you.

The scenes are sexy and intense and very satisfying. The characters are open and left bared for judgment and you find yourself falling in love with them. The story is raw and emotional and leaves you wanting Zach, Monroe, and Angel to get their happily ever after. The all have their own pasts and those pasts have brought them together and they learn how to heal each other in a delicious way. I can’t get over how sexy Holly’s stories are and I can’t wait to read the next one! Oh how I love a dominate man – sending tingles to all my girlie parts.

They pulled up into the driveway and he grabbed her hair as soon as he shut off the engine. “In the playroom, naked, over the spanking bench. If you disobey I won’t let you come until tomorrow. Understood?”

Pure excitement shown on her face and “Yes, Sir” came out on a sigh.

Melanie Marnell says

I I think I fell in love with Monroe from the moment I met him! He's mysterious, lethal, artistic and oh so dominant. Zachery is strong, virile, and loyal. Monroe plays on Zach's loyalty by manipulating him into caring for his slave while Monroe must leave on a mission. Zach gets the shock of his life when the identity of the slave is revealed. He saved Angel from human traffickers a couple of years ago and she never left his mind. Zach loves Angel and she loves her Master Montoe. How do they reconcile their feelings when Zach is so reluctant to admit his?
