Larceny: The Cruellest Lie Told in Silence Jason Poole

In the hood, a snitch is the worst thing a person could possibly be. Rolling over on your best friend who has been with you through thick and thin, hungry and full, freedom and state bids- that's "the cruellest lie told in silence". In this tale that plucks the innermost chords of emotion, jealousy turns to envy then to backstabbing as we observe two friends that have struggled together, hustled together and endured separate prison terms. While Jevon experiences the fruits of the hustle during his partner's first stint, Bilal humbly does his time like a true soldier after taking a manslaughter charge for his "brother". Will their friendship survive the broken bond of brotherhood, or will dishonor come before death?

Savannah Smith says

Synopsis-In this book "Larceny" the main character are Jovsn and Balil. They grew up together and are bestfriends. In this book Jovan and Balil go out to kill two other guys that killed there best friend. When Jovan and Balil get caught they go to jail and have to serve many years. Balil lied and blamed everything on Jovan when it was really all Balils idea.

Classification- This book is targeted to teens and adults. All the characters in the book are young adults so its easier for the readers to understand if they are around that age group. The plot of this book is the introduction, foreshadowing, conflict, climax, then the solution to the problems that tie up all the loose ends.

Criticsim-This book is good literature. I like how the story makes you feel connected to the characters and yu get to really learn about the characters and compare the to someone you know or yourself. I also like how the book foreshadows sometimes but also leaves you wondering and wanting to read more. Something i dont like about this book is some things dont seem real or like it wouldnt happen. Some of the things in the book seem like they dont belong because they get off topic and have no point of being there. I dont like how unnecessary things take place.
