Supriya Kunwar says

This time when I borrowed a new book from the library I said to myself, 'Enough of reading romance and fantasy novels, I am reading something that is going to be totally different from my usual taste of books.' So I borrowed this novel without a second thought. Sadly this stayed in my bookshelf forgotten for about a day before I grudgingly picked it up and read it.

And I wasn't able to stop. This book is so good! The style of writing got me instantly hooked. It was so descriptive making even the smallest of things so beautiful. I was baffled by the way the writer could personify every little thing and create vivid pictures to the point I had dreams about this book at night! The message this book gives is so heartfelt and relatable to most women, especially in rural areas. I simply cannot get enough of the author's writing. Therefore I have decided: I am reading every single book Amar Nyaupane has written.
