With the witch of Doon on the throne, Jamie believed dead, and Duncan and Mackenna trapped in Alloway, Veronica has no choice but to put her grief aside and prepare her remaining followers for the impending battle against the false queen and her forces. But while on a covert mission to steal a powerful elixir from the castle, Veronica discovers her true love may actually be alive, and fighting a battle of his own.

With the Brig o' Doon destroyed and the portal fragmented, Doon's forces are not only divided, but also isolated in different dimensions. With the help of a storyteller as ancient as the witch herself, Kenna and Duncan learn they must rebuild the bridge to have any chance of crossing back into Doon with their ragtag army. But when Mackenna insists on fighting as well, Duncan soon realizes the only way he can ensure her safety is to turn her into a cold-hearted killer.

For Vee, Jamie, Kenna, and Duncan, saving their kingdom while keeping their lives intact will take a miracle.

I really thought it would be a five stars book for me again especially because I liked the story more and more with the next book in the series. Maybe I had too many expectations about the last book but for me this book is my least favourite of the series and I was just waiting that something exciting or thrilling will finally happen but it just never came :/

Forever Doon is the fourth and final book in the Doon series which made it hard to read because I don't want this adventure to be over. Our journey to Doon with Veronica, MacKenna, Jamie, and Duncan has been a wild ride and will read the series again and again for years to come. The writing is romantic and witty. There was much growth in all of the characters in this book alone. While Forever Doon was a little more depressing than the previous three installments, it was still enjoyable. In fact, I contribute a lot of it to it being the last of the series. This was a story I very much enjoyed and a must read for all fans of this series!

I received this ARC at a Carey Corp and Lorie Langdon book signing at the PTBF16

Finding where you belong is a key theme in Forever Doon, the fourth and final edition to the Doon series by Carey Corp and Lorie Langdon. Like every other book in the Doon series, I finished this book in the middle of the night on the day I started it. One thing that kept this book from ever losing my interest was the use of all four POV's, instead of just Vee and Kenna. Once I got to the first Jamie chapter, I was hooked till the end.

I absolutely fell in love with this book. I'm going to go ahead and just list all of the things in this book that just made me swoon.

I was very impressed with the way that Carey and Lorie added so much adventure while also perfectly wrapping up the series. Some of my favorite parts to read were places like (view spoiler) because they were all written so well with such great detail, but at the same time, not too much detail that it got boring. I also loved the introduction of so many new characters that were all finding their place in saving Doon throughout the story. While the book mainly focused on the four main characters (Vee, Kenna, Duncan and Jamie), Carey and Lorie didn't at all leave out any of the supporting characters such as Fergus, Fiona, and all of the new characters and let them find their place in the book. However, Carey and Lorie weren't afraid to keep the book in reality with plenty of deaths throughout the book. (view spoiler) As well as keeping the story interesting, I absolutely loved how Carey and Lorie kept romance and action weaved together through all parts of the book. (view spoiler) Finally, I was so content with the final 'six months later' part where (view spoiler). I was glad that Carey and Lorie weren't all 'It's over! We're all done now!' and gave one last 'where are they now'. And oh, the epilogue made me laugh so hard.

I would absolutely recommend this whole series to any YA Fiction readers. It is the perfect combination of action, romance, fantasy, and a little bit of comedy here and there with Kenna's loveable theater references and sarcasm. If you haven't read this series, you are crazy! It truly shows that everybody has a place where they belong and a purpose in this world. And Forever Doon is by far the best finale to any series in the history of YA. I can't wait to get the final version in August! Thank you so much Carey and Lorie for creating such a wonderful world to get lost in so easily. I will cherish Doon forever.

2,5-3 stars

The last book of this series in one word: disappointment. I thought this too would be a 5* book for me, however I can't give that.

It was really boring and nothing really happened and there were so many character flaws, I couldn't understand and they were just behaving like little kids and not like grown ups.

I waited and waited for something big to happen, but it just never came.

It was all solved way too easily and ... yeah I can't give it more than 2,5 - 3 stars.

After the ending of the previous book in this series, I was really interested in seeing what was going to happen next. I thought the books got more and more exciting as the series went on, so I was really looking forward to seeing how the series was going to wrap up! This book wasn't my favorite book in the series, but it was still a fun book to read.

One of the issues I have had with this series is that the writing reads as preteen instead of teen. I was hoping that would maybe change as the series went on, but it didn't. The dialogue felt a quite immature at times, which would annoy me. I really think young teens would adore this writing style, because I know I definitely would have when I was younger! However, at my age now, I just find it a bit childish. Another issue I had with this book was that I was still not able to connect with McKenna. McKenna made unnecessary drama throughout the entire book, which was very annoying. She also made countless musical references that I never understood. Unfortunately, her chapters were always my least favorite to read.

All that being said, there were a lot of things I did enjoy in this book! I thought Vee's storyline in this book was very addictive and interesting. I blew through her chapters! I really connected to her as a character, and I admired her strength in this book. I also love her with Jamie. They are adorable together!

Another thing I enjoyed in this book was the action. I thought the action was intense! The authors were able to write the action scenes in a way that I actually felt like I was there in the moment. It was great!

Overall, I thought this was a fun book! There were things I didn't like, but I thought this a lovely way to wrap up this series. I would recommend this series to any preteen who loves fairytales, romance, friendship, and action!

Forever Doon is the 4th and final book in the Doon series. Honestly I'm at a loss for words when it comes to writing this review. I'm not sure that I can completely convey my feelings for this book with words. Nevertheless I'll give it a go...

The book was absolutely beautiful and I couldn't be happier with the way the series ended. (I just don't want to face the fact, that this beautiful, amazing series has come to an end!) On a side note Lorie did say "as of now" when asked if Forever Doon is the final book in the series. Which of course I'm hoping & praying this means there may be another book in the future!

Forever Doon is above all my favorite book in this series. It's dramatic, ferocious and my favorite...epically romantic!

I've come to love each & every character while traversing through the series. That being said, it was difficult at times watching Veronica, Jamie, Mackenna & Duncan go through some pretty tough situations. I felt as if I were there cheering them on, practically biting my nails and even at times closing my eyes and praying they would persevere!

This book is written in all four characters POV, which I loved! I felt that it brought me even closer to each character and made the story very well rounded.

With Forever Doon being the last book in the series things were wrapped up quite nicely. There is one tiny thing I'd have liked to have seen, I won't tell you what it was since it'd be a spoiler but you can always email me to talk about it once you've read it! I'm thinking it was Carey and Lorie's way of leaving a possibility of another book in the series...yep I'm still crossing my fingers on that one!

Also, I must mention...there are new and interesting characters in this installment that I just loved!

Overall I absolutely loved Forever Doon and honestly didn't want it to end. I would recommend this series to anyone who's read Outlander, is interested in time-travel or alternate dimensions or loves books with plenty of adventure & romance, oh and awesome BFFs!

5 Stars!!!!

AMAZING! Forever Doon was a spectacular ending to a wonderful series. This book really explored the complexities and emotional levels of the character's relationships, with everyone becoming stronger and happier at the end. I just loved it!

Vee, Mackenna, Jamie and Duncan are all back with the rest of the gang, and Forever Doon features all four POV's (!!!!! I know right, I was so excited for this). The emotional depth and growth between the characters was fantastic, particularly the acceptance and trust between Mackenna and Duncan. Vee and Jamie had their own issues, and there is this one scene - so beautiful with all the love and forgiveness I had tears in my eyes. There are several new characters, and to be honest, most of the secondary characters take a back seat (including Fiona, Fergus, the Rosetti family), but I didn't mind it, as this book was really driven by the main four leads.

The plot, just fantastic! The slow build, the reunions, the preparation 'montages' and then the final battle - all amazing. There was this one point at the end when I thought "It better not end here" and then it finished in the most wonderful manner possible. I don't think anyone will be disappointed by this finale.

The Doon series is the perfect mixture of romance, fantasy, magic and drama that I loved every moment. This series also addresses issues relating to relationships (platonic, family, romantic), faith, trust, strength, acceptance and forgiveness so well that it has become a staple favourite for me. I will certainly be re-reading the entire series once Forever Doon is officially released and if there were any more books in the series, I would definitely be reading them. (Plus, the covers are all gorgeous!)

Forever Doon, and the entire Doon series is a definite recommendation of mine to anyone who would like a bright, happy tale (with drama and amazing fight sequences) about two best friends finding home, romance, friends and happiness!

Thank-you to Zonderkidz-Books and Net Galley for this ARC. I received this ARC in exchange for an honest review

*I clenched my fist tighter, squinting at the horizon where I willed mountains to appear.
Please, I pleaded silently. We need to get back to Vee and the others. We need to save Doon.*

The last book in Doon series has come!!!! I don't want the journey end!!! The book is so good!!! Lovely, magical, Doonly... I'm so lucky that I was at NY when it release!!! So I can read it as soon as possible!!! I immediately devoured it when I get hold on this book...and couldn't let it down. And see the cover? This is my favorite so far!!!

What thought pop into me after reading the final? It's a Harry Potter + Outlander + a bit magic and A LOT OF DOON! I definitely love how the plots go. As much as I love how all those protagonists develop their characters into a strong and bad-ass nowadays, I still love how Vee and Kenna grow differently. They grow stronger, and they realize that together makes them stronger as well. They never abandon each other, even the bridge separated them. You might question: so they didn't grow throughout the entire progress? No! They did become better and wiser!!! I like how this series goes, it isn't epic or high fantasy, but it's definitely something. It's like a cold stream inside the desert, giving us something fresh and clear. So unlike the recent trend of YA series (Not like I hate them, I LOVE THEM.) But somehow, it always feels so relaxing after reading this series. It's not a reading burden, but a reading paradise, especially for the last book of the series. I was like an entirely different person after reading, everything is so clear and bright.

But I sincerely believe that the summery has exaggerated a little bit? Kenna isn't going to become a cold-hearted murder...so don't worry. (Yes, I know. There isn't a hot-warming killer...but still...Kenna isn't going to transform into a bad character.) But aside from that? Everything is perfect. It is a great thing to read somebody wise enough to support their mate. Yes, you—Jamie and Duncan. Unlike other male characters in other series (Ex: Tamlin?) they seem to handle the situation of their loved one going on battle field wiser. Jamie might have the plan of locking Veronica in the tower, becoming a damsel in distress...but eventually, he didn't. Duncan might have hate the idea of training Mackenna...however, to protect her, he did. Guys...that's what I call "respect." You support each other!

Remember I said that reading this book give me a refreshing? The plots are enchanted! There's always no need to worry something boring might happen in this series, because you'll simply enjoy every moment you spend with Vee and Mackenna. It's like jumping into a magic waterfall, you follow down the water, and when you come up on shore...you're a new person. There are ups and downs during the journey, sadness, happiness, excitement, desperation... Forever Doon is definitely the next Harry Potter for all YA reader, it's magical and brilliant. The battle of Doon is thrilling but not bloody spread, the friendship and love between them reminds you the purest part of humanity. It's simply perfect. So here I say again—if you've read the previous three books, make sure to grab the latest. If you haven't, take it and read it. You'll be amaze by how this series stand out itself so unlike others. It's not a novel full of love and passion; it's not a novel full of battles and trials. But it's a well combination of both, you're going to get love, friendship, battles and plans. Prepare yourselves—for the stream of desert and the flower of wild.

I honestly can't fathom the fact that this series is over... these novels have impacted my life and changed me personally in so many ways, and I'm forever grateful to them for that.

This was a fantastic final book. I loved it, but it was definitely hard to read. The events that take place- the trials some of our beloved characters go through, and the overall feel of the book is somewhat depressing, but realistic. It felt different from the previous three novels in many ways, but I wouldn't have it any other way. The authors clearly knew what they were doing while writing this book!

As always, the writing was brilliant, witty, and beautiful. It's impossible to read these books without feeling as though you're there, in Doon, going through what these characters are going through.

Speaking of characters, even the new ones that were just introduced in this book latch onto your heart in such a way, that you dread seeing any harm come to them. I truly feel as though Vee, Jamie, Kenna, Duncan, Fiona, Fergus, the Rossetis (and the list goes on and on) are real.

Call me crazy, but I feel as though Doon is a real place and I was made for it. Yeah, okay, that does sound pretty crazy... maybe I've been reading too much, but there you have it. These books have resonated with me on such a deep level.

I don't know what else to say, except thank you. Thank you to Carey Corp and Lorie Langdon for writing these novels, and expanding my ever growing love for the country of Scotland. Thank you for creating these beautiful stories and beautifully flawed characters whom I will always cherish.

Doon will forever live on in our hearts!

I have an ARC!! I'm so happy! Thanks to Blink and Lorie Langdon(she was just signing not handing copies out but...) for a copy. This has in no way influenced my review.

Holy Smokes! This book was spectacular! It ties up the series so well. Although I still want novellas about what happens later :)! With action, some romance, and a little bit of geeky humor thrown in Forever Doon was probably my favorite book in the series! It was so beautifully written. Reading this I laughed, happy cried, sad cried, and smiled like a crazy person!

If you haven't read any Doon books yet go pick them up NOW to read before the release of this beauty! If you've read the others you are in for a big treat!

I'm satisfied with this ending, despite all the deaths and sad moments, it was incredible! Definitely worth it!

Dena (Batch of Books) says

Forever Doon is the fourth and final book in the Doon series and it's my favorite. When I started this series, I was on the fence about it, but it ended up being very enjoyable. The authors' writing has gotten stronger throughout the series and the characters develop and grow through each book. Mackenna and Duncan continue to be my favorite couple. They're funny and adorable together. Veronica and Jamie overcome some major trials in this book that bumped them up on my likable list too.

I'm not usually a fan of zombies, but this series has them in spades. Zombies everywhere! I actually think it worked well for the story. There are a few violent and gory spots in this book that had me wrinkling my nose a bit. One instance added a lot of character building and a deeper level to Jamie, but I felt like he got over it rather quickly. I know he struggled, but I had a difficult time believing he could get over something so big in such a short time. Sorry for my vagueness, but I don't want to spoil the book. If you've read it, you probably know what I'm talking about.

Overall, I like the way the series ended. The solution they come up with to defeat the witch is believable and I like the way everything goes down. It's sad to see the series end, but now I can look forward to the next adventures from these two authors.

Content: Violence and light kissing.
