Just when she feels like life is starting to get better and she's officially graduated from high school is the very moment her mother makes a move that literally pulls the rug from underneath her and shatters her life into a million pieces. Homeless and devastated, she runs into the arms of Janiero Wilkes, the hood's finest, and her life changes forever.

Meet Janiero Wilkes, a young hustler on the rise who prides himself on being a faithful and doing what he has to do to raise his two children but, when his dramatic ex/baby mother Eboni shows back up on the scene and tries to stake her claim, he finds himself in a web of lies and deceit that only the Lord himself can get him out of.

Creed, Eboni's on again and off again lover, pops up with literally one thing on his mind and that is making a come up, and he doesn't care if he has to rob, kill, or steal; he's determined to get it all by any means necessary.

Libra went from the greatest day of her life to the worst. She was done wrong by her own mom. Parents are suppose to protect their kids as well as take care of them. Be there for them when they hurt & all cause they didn't ask to be here. Libra ended up meeting someone who saved her. Janeiro was in love with Libra. His past just kept coming back at him. No matter how he keep fighting it just got crazy. Sometimes when you do people wrong they can't let your past go. It may come up at times when you are doing good & being faithful. When you partner loses trust in you it may mess your whole relationship up. Work at it & be honest with them. These two overcome obstacles but they worked it out. Janeiro knew what he had & all he went through he made sure to show her & to cherish her. Good read.

I really like Janiero.. He happen to be at the right place at the right time and picked Libra up.. I'm glad Libra stuck by him and his baby momma drama bc she had a good man. I'm glad they got their happily ever after. And that Libra and Eboni was able to get along after all the drama

Each story just get better and better. I love Janeiro he was a real one. Jay and Libra were great together. I'm glad her mom got it together. This is definitely a must read. I'm glad Eboni didn't cause too much trouble. Chante you did the darn thing with this story...I wish it wasn't a novella because it was so good and I wanted more...

It's a shame that women goes after men who is in another relationship and doesn't want them anymore. Eboni was trifling for what she did. Libra loves her man and was not going to let anyone break them up. All Janeiro had to do was tell her about Eboni moving back home. Libra showed her man that she is a ride or die girl. I am really loving these novellas you all are writing. Keep up the good work.

Libra's mama was a trip. She was foul for how she treated her own daughter and she didn't even care. Jay was cool. He stepped in and changed everything. I couldn't stand Eboni when she first popped back up. She was something sneaky. I thought for sure she was going to succeed in what she was trying to do. It's sad Libra had to go to the lengths she did, but I don't blame her! Can't wait until the next book drops.

These Novellas are everything I just wish that I have more because the stories are so good... Libra Found love in an odd manner ... but that one night of getting put out of her mom's house because she was 18 changed her life I glad that Libra and Eboni found common ground,.. great read

Pamela Johnston Ward saysYeah Libra

I'm so happy for Libra. Her mother was really foul for what she did to her, but it was a blessing in disguise. I didn't like Janiero at first, but once he finally came to his senses, and realized that she was his ride or die, he was ok with me. Eboni really worked my nerves. I'm glad that she finally realized that when it was over, then it was over. My girl Karma came through and paid Creed and Miguel a visit. They got just what they deserved.

Denise saysA Great Read

Well another great love story!! I hate that Libra's Mom put her out, but at the same time I'm glad because she wouldn't have met Janiero!! Eboni got on my nerves with the little sneaky things she was doing, I'm glad Janiero didn't fall for her games because he would have lost a great woman!! Awesome read C. Amor

Jeanida Luckie-Weatherall saysGreat Read

This book was good and good love story. Really liked Janiero, he stepped up and showed Libra that he was a real man. Her mother was so trifling at first, glad she got herself together. Glad Eboni finally realized that whatever she had with Janiero was a thing of the past. Glad Creed and Miguel got what they deserved. So hated it was a novella. Job well done Chante Amor

Another great book I love the way Janiero came into Libra life at her lowest point and showed her love and at his darkest hour she was there to show how much she loved him even though Ebony was dirty I'm glad she made the right choice and creed and Miguel got what they were looking for once again awesome book.

Eboni

This book was so good! I can't stand bm's like Eboni smh. She gives the good ones a bad rep. At least she redeemed herself! Janinero should have just been up front from the get go! Clearly Libra ain't one to play around with! Creed was a f boy! And that's what he gets. Eboni was stupid to have been with him. Especially after how he did her!

Satisfied Reader

Jay was definitely Libra's Angel. He came into her life when she needed someone desperately. I was kinda skeptical of the way they met. But he turned out to be good for her. Eboni finally realized her old flame was burned out. Creed and Miguel got exactly what they deserved

Denise Gilliam says

I'm glad that everything turned out between Libra and Janiero because that damn Eboni was out to ruin their relationship. I'm so happy that Libra was smart enough to get to the bottom of the situation at hand. I'm so happy Janiero finally realized his one true love was Libra all the time. I'm happy that they got married in this case love conquered all. Great job I really enjoyed this story.

This was a sweet love from day one Janerio loved Libra and that was so cute ...just the secrets almost killed his relationship...I'm glad Eboni didn't get his eye and that she got her just dessert ..Creed was a nightmare and I glad his plan was thawed by a real hitter...Libra loved her family and I loved this STORYLINE....great job

Review

The story started off slow, but eventually picked up. Liberty's mom wasn't the best, but she did what she had to do. Liberty bounced back quickly with no in between time. Thanks to Janerio her struggles were over. The way they rode for each other was true love.

Eboni missed her opportunity thinking the grass was greener on the other side. All her had to do was water her own yard and watch it grow. That same opportunity she was chasing did her dirty; not once but twice.
