MOZART COSPLAY RECITAL?

Summer is supposed to be a time for relaxation, but life-changing events are in store for Nodame and her friends. She's about to play her very first recital—at the château of a Mozart-obsessed, cosplay-loving Frenchman! Meanwhile, Chiaki is making big plans for his orchestra, Kuroki is rehearsing for a major audition, and Tanya is looking for love in all the wrong places. How will they ever survive this summer “vacation”?

This series continues to be delightful. It is one of the few music related manga series that focuses on classical musicians. There are some wonderful sequences in this volume. The comedic highlight comes when Nodame performs a piano recital for a benefactor who is into Mozart cos play. All the guests and musicians don 18th century garb for the recital and the dance afterwards. Nodame gets into this, but not all the musicians are comfortable with it. Laughter ensues. All in all, this is another fine installment in this award winning series.

This volume is glorious! Nodame impresses with her child-like enthusiasm of her Mozart recital, and her curry escapades at the end are hilarious! I can't wait to read the next volume!

Chiaki is sort of becoming nicer but their relationship is still sort of vague to me.

Volume 15 mostly deals with Nodame's recital. It contains one of my favorite scenes between Chiaki and Nodame. I look forward to reading more of this series.

There is a manga, anime, and live action series of Nodame Cantabile. I have yet to see the anime but recommend any version for music lovers. This is not a kids cartoon. It has a rating of OT which means it is for ages 16 and up. This rating is equivalent to rated R
