Put Me Back Together Again Karma Monae

In A Jersey Love Saga, you were introduced to Matt, Jux's protégé and little cousin. He and the love of his life Ashleigh, are trying to make it work, but they can't seem to make it right with the constant drama and past trust issues. Matt knows it's Ashleigh who has his heart, but after having a baby on her, he's torn between giving his daughter a family or walking out for the one who has loved him since he was a little nigga. Ashleigh on the other hand, has one foot already out the door and she's tired of handing out chances. When a new young Neurosurgeon, has his eyes set on nurse Ashleigh, she tries to steer clear of him knowing she's not quite done with Matt yet. But with Matt's vindictive baby mama in the picture, Ash may be done sooner than she thinks. Will Matt and Ash weather the storm, or will they finally call it quits?

Tommi is a successful black woman, engaged to one of the most prestigious bachelors in New Jersey. From the outside looking in, she has it all together and is working her way to the top as Editor and Chief for Ebony Magazine. Her Cinderella story is becoming her reality until.... Matt's older cousin, and the one who broke her heart, Adriene James, walks back into the picture. Adriene isn't the same scrawny little boy, dreaming of going to the NBA that he used to be. He's now a father, and the owner of several stores throughout California. When he and his cousin Brandon come back to town, he knows it's only a matter of time before he runs into Tommi. And when he does, he finds out he wasn't the only one to move on. Trying to leave the past in the past, they both try to fight their deepest desires and steer clear of one another and make their relationships work. Only, it's not so easy when they are back in the same zip code as one another. Does Tommi and Adriene betray the ones who put them back together, or have they both become someone that they use to know?

From the time Janay bumped into Insane, in the club, she knew there was something about him that would keep her coming back. Maybe it was the tattoo's that covered every inch of his body, or the fact that he had the entire Jersey on smash. Whatever it was, it had her reevaluating her entire 5 year relationship with her boyfriend, Ray. Tired of Ray's double life, and being the woman he leaves at night instead of coming home to, Janay finds herself spending more time with Insane. Although Insane isn't the relationship dude, he finds himself becoming captivated by Janay and doing the things he vowed to never do. However, Ray makes it known the only way she can leave him is in a casket.

In this epic love story, join each couple as they embark on their journey to find their way back to true love. They say how you get them, is how you lose them but what if they were never yours to begin with? It's never easy Loving A Savage, especially if your one too!

Crazy Read

This book was very good from beginning to end. I felt so bad for Ash. She had so much loyalty, but she never received it in return. She allowed so much hurt all because she has pretty much loved this person all her life. I was actually surprised when she finally quit. They always say a women knows when she has enough and Ash definitely did. Matt may be crazy, but the best thing for him to do is move on with his life and let Ash live hers. I believe he loves Ash dearly, but Kerra has something over him that he will never leave her alone. I can't stand Kerra. That girl has no type of ambition or anything. Tommi has things cut out for her. I don't think she loved Manny as much as she should have. Her heart still belongs to A.J.. That was most definitely proved reading this. I personally didn't care too much for Manny because it always seemed like he was trying to change her. He always had something to say about how she talked or who she hung out with. A.J. was a trip. He also knows his heart belongs to Tommi, but he was so hurt in the past because of something she did. Their love and chemistry was undeniable though. Now as for Ms. Cris. I liked her and Brandon together and the fact that he stepped in when she didn't want anyone's help says a lot, but she definitely made me mad at the end. She is a fool and needs to get her situation together before she loses out on a good man again. Brandon has definitely went above and beyond for her. Nay was another one who was loyal to a man that wasn't loyal to her. I couldn't stand Ray and when she met Insane I was all for them. Lol. Insane really isn't a bad dude. All the drama in this book has me ready for book two. Will Matt leave Ash alone? Will Nay and Insane get together? What is going to happen between Cris and Brandon? So many more things I'm wondering and I know Karma will definitely have more drama to come.

Karma has done it again, she is definitely not one to disappoint. Janay was with a man that she had been with since she was 20 years old, Ray. She has been lied to for six years by him, with him promising her that he would leave his little, "situation," and make her his one and only. Of course, that never happened, as he continued to run between two women. Ray paid Nay's rent, bought her nice things, thinking that the nice things would compensate for his limited time, and his lack of commitment. After a while, Nay wanted more, but as Ray continued to do him, he wanted her to be with only him, and only did what he told her to do.

Insane or Inez, was completely different than Ray, when it came to Nay, who was also Ashleigh's cousin. He was upfront with her, letting her know that she wasn't the only one, but he someday wanted to be in love, with a family, and children. He had trust issues, was complicated, but with patience, he was worth the wait. He didn't have women, who ran in and out, and he showed Nay how a woman was supposed to be treated. He whined and dined Nay, providing her with new experiences, and a different way of life. He didn't lie to her, lead her on, and he was completely honest with her. Inez adored his mother, money, and alone time. He was intrigued with Nay the first time he laid eyes on her, but he never understood why Nay would settle for Ray.

Ashleigh and Matt had known each other almost their entire lives. They were each other best friends, and Matt was the only man that Ash had been with. They had their fair share of arguments and fights, not anything major, until Matt slept with a woman, and gotten her pregnant, Takerra. After having a baby on Ash, she decided to do her, just as Matt was doing him. The only thing was that Matt was in love with Ash, but he wanted his daughter, Mykah, to be in the same household, with both of her parents. Kerra, was a baby's mother from hell, with not cooking, cleaning, setting a poor example for Myka, but even worse, living off of Matt's money. The situation went from bad to worse, when Matt decided to sleep between his baby's mother, and Ash. With what was supposed to be a temporary situation, turned into a convenient situation for Matt, and he became too comfortable.

Tommie was close friends with Ash, and she was engaged to Manny. Manny was inherited with, and came from wealth, a mile long. You would've thought that it would've been one of the happiest times in her life, but it wasn't. Manny thought that he was better than Tommie, and treated her like she was his, "charity case." Tommie was too ghetto, he didn't approve of her friends, he corrected the way she spoke, and he looked at her with disgust, instead of love. Manny did everything he could to change Tommie, and no one understood why Tommie would settle with Manny. However, there was someone that adored Tommie, Adrienne.

Adrienne and Tommie were each other's first love. After the death of his grandmother, he came back home, and he had made a name for himself. Adrienne was very successful, had a son, but he wanted more. Tommie didn't realize what she was missing out on, until she seen her first love after many years of him being away. Feelings she thought were gone, resurfaced, and she began to feel that Manny wasn't the man for her. After reconnecting with Adrienne, she began to spend more time with him, and less time with Manny. Now torn between two men, Tommie either married Manny, or else. He knew a secret about her, and she felt obligated to be with him, or have her secret exposed.

Christian was the last one that completed the group of best friends....Nay, Ash, Tommie, and Crissy. When Adrienne came back home, Brandon came back as well together. Brandon and Crissy had just as much history as Tommie and Adrienne, Ash and Matt. Crissy had been in a previous relationship with the father of her daughter, that mentally, and physically abused her. The relationship ended when her baby's father ended with an assault charge, due to the abuse of Crissy, that resorted to him going to prison. When Crissy and Brandon reunited, he wanted that old thing back, and to continue where they left off many years ago. Things were going well, until the father of her daughter returned, showed up at Crissy's front door unannounced.

I can't imagine the drama that's going to unfold when three out of the four friends are in relationships, that are three-way love triangles. Will any of these relationships make it through the storm, or will they all crash and burn is the question.

Great read

Wow.. These couple's are something else. I was really hoping that Matt got his self together and do right by Ash. But his mess that all of for someone he claim he didn't love. Tommie and Adriene I'm glad that they ended back together, I'm sure that there's going to be trouble in paradise though coming from Manny and AJ baby momma. I thought sure Cris and Brandon was going good. She should have just been real with him and let him know her daughter's father was out of job. Instead of ducking and dodging him now she done got herself into some mess. Insane was really feeling Nay but she was scared that he was doing her wrong and not accepted the fact that he was just trying to be a real man to her. Now Ray pops back up and she ends up killing his crazy butt. The only couple without any issues is Jux and Lani. This was a great read. I can't wait for part two.

Monique Spicer says*Wow

This was a good read I was really trying to hang in there with Matt but he of course did the ultimate no no. Ash was playing no games when it came to him either. You most definitely won't be disappointed with this one here. I can't wait to read part two.
