Blue Shift Delia Strange

A collection of science fiction and speculation.

One novella, seven short stories and a duo of flash fiction

SECOND LIFE: Brenda has lived in Dungoorra for as long as she can remember, just like everyone else in the tiny outback town. She lives with an old man that could be her grandfather and with a young girl that could be her daughter. Except they're not. The secret that bonds the small community is both comforting and claustrophobic. Even in a town full of secrets, it's difficult to keep any of your own.

FORTUNE: If you could see the future, would you look?

AIR FIRE WATER EARTH: A four part story told in reverse.

MECCA: A 'Femme' novel prequel.

THE SONG: A tale from the depths of the Brisbane River.

...and many more tales of science fiction and speculation.
