The Girls from the Local Rosie Archer

Gosport, Hampshire 1943, and even in the middle of war the local pub provides a warm welcome, thanks to its trio of barmaids.

Ruby has been living and working at the Point of No Return pub since her parents were killed by a bomb. She loves the bustle of the pub; it helps take her mind off worrying about her fiancé, Joe, away fighting in France.

The only thing Ruby doesn't like about the Point is Sylvie. This singing siren may have a beautiful voice, but she's out for all she can get, including Joe.

Finally, there's Marge, a true party girl. She's a great friend to Ruby and makes sure they have fun, going out to dances and flirting with all and sundry, but she's not as fond of her other role as a mother to two young children.

The three of them face many obstacles to fulfilling their dreams, but the bonds of friendship and camaraderie that hold the Point together will keep them going through the darkest of times.

Different kinds of love

What a story, Rosie Archer, has a way of writing, keeps you on your toes!
Deceitful, manipulating ,love ,Sylvia was so much in love with Jo, that she would anything to get him, not realising how much hurt it caused between Jo and his girlfriend who he had left to go to war, by the time he came home injured his girlfriend had married, but it was who to! Good story, read to find the outcome!

Sandra says

A fabulous book of friendship a deep loving friendship that sees them through, and of course there is also some one who tries to spoil the romance of Ruby and Joe but through good and bad times the girls pull together. To find out the end you must read the book. Well worth 5*

Mrs MJH Compton-Edwards says

Very nice read, I just wish the authors of these books got their facts right, all women married to servicemen were given an allowance also allowance was awarded for each child, it was not a lot but it was paid each week by the Post Office which wives had to produce their allowance book to receive it, this is a fact I know as I had two sisters married to servicemen and one had a child, so NO wife was completely without, although they still had to work to supplement it.... so research correctly please!!
